July 2024

Dear Parishioners, hope you are well. The Month of July brings some beautiful feast days and Saints into our lives. Last month we celebrated Sts Peter and Paul in a blessed way with His Eminence Archbishop Makarios. A special thanks goes to our Parishioners who worked with "A Touch Of Kindness" to feed and clothe over 200 Homeless in the city on the 3rd of July. Photos are attached. We also continue the Food Drive in the Sutherland Shire once a month for a similar amount of meals.

With the blessing of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios we continue to endeavour to try and save our Development Application for our Community Hub and Childcare Centre. For this reason we have demolished one of the houses and will reconfigure the car park with comprehensive plumbing and electrical to match the new development. This will then give us some more time to fundraise to continue the development. We do ask for Parishioners and Friends to contribute generously or to kindly bequest in your Will to this project.

PLEASE NOTE TO CONSTRUCT AND RECONFIGURE THE CAR PARK IT WILL BE CLOSED VERY SOON FOR ABOUT 6 WEEKS. WE WILL HAVE TO PARK ON THE ROAD AND WALK IN FROM THE KINGSWAY ENTRANCE. THE HOTHAM ROAD ENTRANCE WILL BE FENCED OFF. THE CHURCH AND HALL WILL BE OPERATIONAL BUT WITH SPECIAL FENCING. DO NOT ENTER THE CONSTRUCTION SITE!

Our Teen and Youth Cafe in conjunction with the Adult Orthodox Cafe will continue after School Holidays every second Friday and on Sunday after the Service. We ask you to follow their interviews of Parishioners called "Pearls of Wisdom." Our Greek School for Primary, High School and Adults continues classes after the Holidays. Please refer to the flyer to enrol in the Adult classes for beginners. Our Play group starts back after School holidays on a Thursday from 10am. The Seniors group meets every Tuesday at 930am with a Paraklesis to the Mother of God and then in the Hall. Please also remember we have free Byzantine Music Lessons every Friday afternoon from 530pm. May God bless you all. Fr Constantine.
